NAVITA SINGH, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for quashing of FIR No. 73 dated 06.06.2010, under Sections 498-A, 406 IPC registered at Police Station Budhlada, District Mansa, on the basis of compromise, along with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom.

Counsel for the complainant i.e. respondent No.2 submits that compromise has been effected between the petitioners and the private respondents. It has been agreed that petitioner No.1-Manoj Kumar and respondent No.3-Sarita Rani shall live separately and on quashing of the FIR and on withdrawal of the cases initiated by respondent No.3, an amount of ₹1,00,000/- which is with her counsel, shall be paid to her.

Report from SDJM, Budhlada has been received in which it is mentioned that parties have arrived at a compromise.

It has been stated by counsel for the parties that the parties have compromised the matter. The dispute between the parties was of personal nature. In view of this, there should not be any impediment in allowing the parties to compromise the matter. Support to this view can be had from the authority Madan Mohan Abbot vs. State of Punjab, 2008 (2) RCR (Criminal) 429, wherein Hon'ble the Supreme Court has ruled that in such type of cases where the dispute is of personal nature, Court should ordinarily accept the compromise.

In view of the above, the petition is accepted. The above-said FIR and the proceedings connected therewith are hereby quashed.

Disposed of.
