This is a petition seeking protection of life and liberty of the petitioners from respondents No.4 to 10.

On 12.03.2015, following order was passed by this Court:

“Instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been filed seeking protection of life and liberty of the petitioners from respondents No.4 to 10. The petitioners assert that they are major and as there is no legal impediment, they have got married. They have already moved application dated 10.03.2015 (Annexure P-8) to respondent No.2 – Senior Superintendent of Police (Rural), Jalandhar for protecting their life and liberty.

Crl. Misc. No. M-8009 of 2015

Learned counsel for the petitioners, after seeking instructions from petitioner No.2 states that in order to show his bonafide, petitioner No.2 will deposit Rs.50,000/- in the form of FDR for two years in favour of petitioner No.1. Initially, petitioner No.2 will deposit a sum of Rs.20,000/- in the form of FDR for two years in favour of petitioner No.1 within 10 days and thereafter Rs.30,000/- within two months in the form of FDR. An affidavit of petitioner No.2 with regard to deposit of aforesaid amount has been filed in Court which is taken on record. Both the FDRs will be for two years and will not be encashed prematurely.

Notice of motion to the Advocate General, Punjab as well as respondents No.2 to 10 for 23.03.2015.

If the process fee is not deposited by the counsel for the petitioners, the Registry shall issue

Crl. Misc. No. M-8009 of 2015

notice to the respondents at its own.

Respondent No.3 – Station House Officer, Police Station Nakodar, District Jalandhar, is directed to effect service upon private respondents No.4 to 10. However, the SHO will ensure that no inconvenience and embarrassment is caused to them and for that purpose, official going for service may preferably be in civil uniform.

In the meantime, petitioners shall not be arrested in this case. However, this will not prevent the concerned police authorities to proceed against the petitioners in accordance with law, if they are found involved in any other case.

It is made clear that this order is qua protection only and shall not be construed that the petitioners have contracted legal marriage. They have to prove legality of their marriage in appropriate proceedings.

The petitioners will also be at liberty to approach respondent No.2 Senior Superintendent of Police (Rural), Jalandhar, for protection as per instructions dated 18.08.2010 issued by the Home Department, Punjab. If required, petitioners will be provided adequate security.”

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that in compliance of order dated 12.03.2015, petitioner No.2 has deposited the amount of Rs.20,000/- in a fixed deposit for two years in favour of petitioner No.1. Photocopy of receipt filed in Court today, is taken on record.

Keeping in view the above, the order dated 12.03.2015 is made absolute. The petitioner No.2 shall comply with the remaining part of the order and send a copy of the FDR to Court.

Disposed of.
