....Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

Present : Mr. Sandeep Arora, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. P.J.S.Hundal, AAG, Punjab

MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioner prays for grant of regular bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C in case FIR no. 242 dated 23.12.2014 registered under Sections 323, 451, 506 IPC and 307 IPC (which was added later on) at Police Station Adampur, District Jalandhar, Punjab.

The petitioner is alleged to have gone to the shop of the complainant and tried to inflame it and some of the petrol is said to have fallen on the complainant as well. However, the fire could not be lit.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that he is in custody for the last three months and there is a dispute in the village regarding a loan taken by the self help group in which the complainant was to depose against the bunglings in the financial transactions.

Learned counsel for the respondent would point out to the serious nature of the allegations against the petitioner.

On due consideration of the matter, I am of the view that undoubtedly the allegations against the petitioner are serious but finding that no harm has been caused and noticing the fact that the petitioner is in custody for the last three months and also considering the fact that challan has been submitted, instant petition is accepted. It is directed that the petitioner released on bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C subject to his furnishing heavy surety in order to obviate the chances of his absconding. Bail to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court.

Nothing said herein shall be construed to be an expression on the merits of the case.
