

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM NO. M-8664 OF 2015 (O&M)
DECIDED ON : 18.03.2015

Naresh Singh

...Petitioner

versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. C. PURI

Present : Mr. Sandeep Verma, Advocate.

K. C. PURI, J. (ORAL)

This is second bail petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that co-accused has been exonerated and as such, the petitioner is entitled to grant of anticipatory bail.

I have considered the said submission but do not find any force in the same.

Mere fact that co-accused has been exonerated is not a ground for grant of anticipatory bail, more so, when the earlier bail petition has been dismissed on merits.

So, no ground for grant of anticipatory bail is made out.

Dismissed.
