CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

1. To be referred to the Reporters or not ?
2. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest ?

Present: Mr.Vijay Saini, Advocate for the petitioners.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inordinate long delay caused in disposal of an execution application (Annexure P-4), at the hands of the learned executing court, petitioners have approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., seeking direction to the learned executing court for early decision of the execution application.

Learned counsel for the petitioners refers to the different zimni orders placed on record at Annexure P-5 (colly), to contend that avoidable delay is being caused without there being any justified reasons. He further submits that petitioners would be satisfied in case the learned executing court is directed to ensure early disposal of the execution application.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and after careful perusal of the record of the case, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to the learned executing court of ACJM, Kurukshetra, before whom the execution application (Annexure P-4) is pending decision, to ensure early decision of the execution application moved by the petitioners.

The matter is now stated to be pending consideration before the learned executing court for 7.4.2015. Let the executing court make an endeavour to decide the execution application on the date already fixed, i.e. 7.4.2015 as an inordinate long time of two years has already passed. If the learned executing court does not find it feasible to decide the execution application on the date already fixed, i.e. 7.4.2015, let the same be decided by passing an appropriate order, strictly in accordance with law, on the next date of hearing but in any case within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

With the above-said observations made and directions issued, instant petition stands disposed of.
