1. Whether reporters of local newspapers may be allowed to see judgment?
2. To be referred to reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Hari Pal Verma, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.585 dated 30.11.2014, under Section 147, 148, 149, 323, 325 and 326 IPC and later on added Section 307 IPC, registered at Police Station Kheri, Daula, Gurgaon.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that only allegation against the petitioner is that he attacked upon the complainant, namely, Bimla Devi with a lathi (stick) on which she caught hold the lathi and therefore, there is no injury attributed to the petitioner. He further states that the petitioner is in custody since 30.11.2014 and challan has already been presented in the case on 19.02.2015. In this manner, no useful purpose would be served by detaining the petitioner in custody.

On the other hand, learned State counsel does not dispute the custody period of the petitioner.

Considering the fact that no role wherein the injury under Section 307, IPC, has been attributed to the petitioner and trial will take long time as the challan has been presented only on 19.02.2015, no useful purpose would be served by detaining the petitioner in custody. Accordingly, the petitioner is admitted to the regular bail subject to his furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial court.

This petition is allowed.
