

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

Criminal Misc. No.M-901 of 2015

Date of Decision : January 22, 2015

Harkinder Singh @ Mangi

.....Petitioner

VERSUS

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE T.P.S.MANN

Present : Mr. N.K. Manchanda, Advocate.

Mr. S.S. Dhaliwal, Additional A.G., Punjab.

T.P.S. MANN, J. (Oral)

Prayer made in the petition is for the grant of regular bail to the petitioner.

The petitioner had earlier approached this Court for the grant of regular bail by filing Criminal Misc. No.M-27159 of 2014 but the same was dismissed on 21.8.2014. Aggrieved of the same, the petitioner filed Special Leave Petition (Criminal) No.7964 of 2014 before the Hon'ble Supreme Court but the same was also dismissed on 3.11.2014.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is suffering from haematemesis (blood in vomiting) and haematuria (blood in urine), besides other diseases and, therefore, he may be granted the concession of bail.

From a perusal of the certificate, Annexure P-2, issued by the Senior Medical Officer, Central Jail, Ludhiana in which it stands mentioned that the petitioner is suffering from haematmesis and haematuria, it is made out that the jail authorities are taking requisite steps so as to get the petitioner treated for the aforementioned ailments. So much so, he is being taken to Civil Hospital, Ludhiana in that regard.

In view of the above, no case is made out for the grant of bail to the petitioner. Resultantly, the petition is, dismissed.

However, the jail authorities shall ensure that the petitioner gets regular medical treatment, as advised by the doctors.
