CRM-M-9262-2014

Decided on: November 27, 2015.

Gurpreet Singh and others

.... Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana and others

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Ravinder Malik, and
Mr. Naveen Chopra, Advocates, for the petitioners.

Mr. C.S. Bakshi, Addl. A.G., Haryana.

Mr. Vikram Singh, Advocate, for respondents no. 5 to 13.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner No.1 is a complainant who claims that his daughter has been enticed away by respondent No.5 in connivance with other private respondents.

Petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C for issuance of appropriate direction for holding a fair investigation by transferring/handing over the investigation to the Crime Branch or any other independent agency.

In the reply filed, it has been submitted that the report under Section 173 (2) Cr.P.C on the basis of material available during course of investigation, has been submitted in the Court of Illaqa Magistrate. It is also mentioned that the accused had been arrested after considering the innocence of few of the accused named in the FIR.

I have considered the facts and circumstances of the case and I am of the view that the apprehension of the petitioners that no action is being taken and the investigation is not being fairly conducted has been found to be false as the challan has already been presented and the main culprits having been arrested in accordance with law, no further direction is required to be issued.

Petition is disposed of as having rendered infructuous without prejudice to the right of the petitioners to avail any other legal remedy available to the petitioners in accordance with law, in case, the petitioners are not satisfied with the investigation.
