RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

After arguing the case for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission of the Court to withdraw the present petition with liberty to the petitioner to avail his equally efficacious alternative remedy of revision against the impugned summoning order, at the first instance.

Learned counsel for the complainant also fairly states that in case the petitioner moves the revision within a period of three weeks from today, he will not raise issue of limitation against the petitioner.

In view of the above, instant petition is dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty to the petitioner, as prayed for.
