RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that despite having been made best efforts on his part, petitioner is not coming forward. Further, despite the service having been effected on the respondent, nobody has put in appearance on behalf of the respondent as well.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner is fully justified in pleading no instructions.

In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous, however with liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh one on the same cause of action as and when necessity arises.
