... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Ms. Sarika Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. K.D. Sachdeva, Addl. AG, Punjab.

Mr. Deepak Sabharwal, Advocate for the complainant.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks pre-arrest bail in FIR No.22 dated 16.01.2015 under Sections 420, 506 IPC, registered at Police Station City Tarn Taran, District Tarn Taran.

Notice of motion was issued and interim protection was granted.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has joined the investigation and is no more required for any further investigation.

The factual aspect of the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioner could not be denied by learned counsel for the State and rightly so, it being a matter of record.

However, learned counsel for the complainant vehemently opposes the present petition contending that huge amount was recovered from the petitioner. He also submits that there may be some chances of amicable settlement between the parties.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties at considerable length, after careful perusal of the record of the case and giving thoughtful consideration to the rival contentions raised, this Court is of the considered opinion that keeping in view the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, petitioner deserves the concession of anticipatory bail. It is so said because he has joined the investigation and did not misuse the concession of interim anticipatory bail granted by this Court.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties as well as leaving the scope of an amicable settlement open, order dated 26.03.2015 passed by this Court is hereby made absolute, however, subject to the conditions envisaged under Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C.

Disposed of, accordingly.
