CHANDIGARH

Crl.Misc.No.M-9866 of 2015(O&M)

Date of Decision : 01.04.2015

Dhanjay

....Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

Present : Mr.Rajesh Arora, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. P.S.Chauhan, Addl. AG, Haryana with Mr. Himmat Singh, AAG, Haryana

MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioner prays for grant of regular bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C in case FIR no. 13 dated 15.1.2015 registered under Sections 387, 120B IPC at Police Station, Sector 56, District Gurgaon.

The allegations against the petitioner and two other persons are that they have been making calls for ransom to the complainant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is merely a driver and investigation has not shown any substantial role attributed to him. Neither any phone call nor any phone has been traced to him.

Learned counsel for the respondent would point out to the serious nature of the allegations against the petitioner and states that the petitioner is actively involved in the commission of the offence.

On due consideration of the matter and noticing the fact that prima facie the entire material collected would suggest the undeniable complicity of Nitin Pawar. The fact that the phone call of the said card from which calls are made not being traced to the petitioner and also noticing the fact that investigation has since been completed and challan submitted and the fact that it is a Magisterial Trial, instant petition is accepted. It is directed that the petitioner be released on bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C subject to his furnishing heavy surety considering the fact that the petitioner belongs to a place of Uttar Pradesh and there are greater chances of his evading the law. Bail to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court.

Nothing said herein shall be construed to be an expression on the merits of the case.
