1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This revision has been filed against the concurrent acquittal of the respondents No.2 to 4 by the Courts below.

Both the Courts below have found that the injuries attributed were not actually suffered by the petitioner. This conclusion was drawn as per the report of the medical board as per which the skin wound did not correspond with the old underlying fracture which gave rise to the conclusion that over an old fracture a small cut was made by a friendly hand to implicate the accused-respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has not been able to point out any finding which is illegal or which evidence has not been considered properly.

Consequently, the revision is dismissed.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
