CRM No.19396 of 2015

The application for preponing the date of hearing is allowed and with the consent of both parties, the main case is taken up today itself for final hearing.

Annexures P-1 and P-2 are taken on record and exemption from filing certified copies of the Annexures P-1 and P-2 is also granted.

CRR No.1407 of 2015

1. The revision is against the order of conviction for offence under Section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act and the dismissal of the appeal. Since it is essentially a money transaction at the time of issuing notice, this Court had taken note of the submission made by the counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner that he would be willing to pay ₹ 7 lacs in the name of the complainant. The draft has been prepared and brought before the Court. The counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant is before the Court to say that he is prepared to receive the money. The counsel also states that the respondent is not interested in having the matter prosecuted any further and the Court may pass appropriate orders.

2. If the parties have themselves compromised the matter involving the financial transaction, no purpose will be served by enforcing the sentence of conviction. The sentence passed by the Court below is set aside and the criminal revision petition is allowed.
