State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present:- Mr. Keshav Pratap Singh, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Arun Luthra, AAG, Haryana

JITENDRA CHAUHAN, J. (Oral)

Petitioner has filed this petition challenging the order dated 12.12.2014, passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Palwal, whereby, the judgment of trial court was modified to the extent that the petitioner who was convicted and sentenced by the trial court shall be released on probation of good conduct, on furnishing an undertaking to keep peace and maintain good behaviour for a period of one year and shall furnish probation bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of court below. The petitioner was also burdened with the payment of Rs.50,000/- to be paid as compensation to the complainant within ten days.

The learned counsel for the petitioner, inter alia, contends that the compensation awarded by the Additional Sessions Judge, Palwal vide impugned order dated 12.12.2014 is on a higher side and is liable to be modified/reduced as the petitioner being poor, does not have the necessary resources to pay the compensation awarded.

The learned State counsel submits that while passing the aforesaid order, the appellate court has considered all the relevant circumstances including the financial status of the petitioner.

Heard.

There is no record to support the assertion raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner. The compensation, as awarded by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Palwal, is in accordance with law and cannot be termed to be excessive, perverse or grossly unjust in the given set of circumstances.

Keeping in view the fact that the petitioner inflicted grievous injury-Ex. PW4/C to injured Yasin, the compensation awarded by the Additional Sessions Judge, Palwal is not on the higher side. There is no illegality, infirmity or perversity in the order of the Additional Sessions Judge, Palwal, which is, hereby, affirmed.

Accordingly, the instant petition is hereby dismissed.
