K. KANNAN J. (ORAL)

1. With the consent of both the parties, the main writ petition itself is taken up for hearing.
2. The issue raised in the writ petition is already covered through decisions of this Court namely whether a person who is resident of Chandigarh could be considered as eligible for admissions to the Punjab quota in the respondent-University. It has been held by the Division Bench of this Court in Harleen Cheema Vs. State of Punjab and others (MANU/PH/3548/2013) in CWP No.24747 of 2012 decided on 27.08.2013 that residents of Chandigarh shall also be taken as eligible for consideration of the Punjab quota, being the Capital of Punjab in the respondent-University. The petitioner's admission had been made provisional before and in terms of the judgment referred to above, it is made final.

3. There shall be a direction of results taken by the petitioner and there shall be no impediment in future as well. The writ petition is allowed in the manner referred to above.
