On 02.03.2015, following order was passed by this Court:-

"After filing the present revision petition, this case has been adjourned on number of times on the request of learned counsel for the petitioner. On 27.10.2014, learned counsel for the petitioner sought time to seek instructions whether petitioner wants to file petition under Section 127 Cr.P.C. before the Judicial Magistrate. Thereafter, none appeared on 29.11.2014 as well as on 13.02.2015. On 13.02.2015, the Court granted one more opportunity to the petitioner to appear and argue the case otherwise the same shall be dismissed for want of prosecution.

Today, also none has come forward to pursue this petition. Last opportunity is granted to the petitioner to argue this petition failing which this petition would be deemed to have been dismissed without making any further reference to the Court.

Adjourned to 27.03.2015.”

In view of aforesaid, no further order is required to be passed in the present case.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.
