Date of decision : 7.7.2015

Abhit Verma

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

....

Present : Mr.Sandeep S.Majithia, Advocate

MAHESH GROVER, J.

On 23.1.2015, this Court has passed the following order :

“Quashing of charges have been prayed for on the ground that the petitioner is a licence holder.

Let counsel for the petitioner make available copy of the licence obtained under NDPS Act, by the next date of hearing.

For preliminary hearing, adjourned to february 2, 2015.”

Thereafter, number of opportunities were given to the petitioner to produce the licence and on 3.3.2015 the following order was passed :-

“Despite two opportunities given, the order dated 23.1.2015 has not been complied with. More time is prayed for which is totally unjustified in the given set of circumstances. However, purely in the interest of justice one last opportunity is granted to the petitioner to do the needful.

Adjourned to 7.7.2015.”

Despite the above, the order dated 23.1.2015 has not been complied with.

Dismissed for want of prosecution.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner prays for permission to withdraw this petition with liberty to file a fresh one. The prayer is granted subject to payment of Rs.10,000/- as costs for wasting the time of the Court unnecessarily. The costs shall be deposited with the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court within a period of two weeks.
