On account of petitioners having failed to appear before the Appellate Court, their conviction under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act has been upheld by the Appellate Court in their absence.

This revision petition is not maintainable unless and until the petitioners surrender before the convicting Court to undergo sentence or resolves the dispute with the complainant subject to any terms.

Counsel for the petitioners has expressed inability of the petitioners to perform any of the above said acts on account of paucity of funds at this stage.

This revision petition is thus dismissed as not maintainable with liberty to the petitioners to avail the legal remedy after surrendering before the appropriate forum.
