JASPAL SINGH, J. (ORAL)

The instant petition has been preferred by Sarbhjit Singh, feeling dissatisfied against the judgement dated January 18, 2014 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Amritsar confirming the conviction under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act vide judgment dated September 18, 2012 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Amritsar. However, with modification in the sentence which was reduced from RI for 02 years to 1-1/2 years.

During the pendency of present revision petition, parties were directed to appear before Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court, as there were chances of amicable settlement. Ultimately, with the intervention of mediator, the parties to the revision petition arrived at compromise and the settlement agreement was reduced into writing on November 25, 2014 by Ms. Rahish Pahwa, Mediator, which was signed by Sarbhjit Singh as well as Amolak Singh i.e. parties to the petition. Further, in compliance of terms and conditions set out in the settlement agreement, the petitioner made the payment to respondent No.1-Amolak Singh and the matter was finally settled, as is evident from the proceedings dated December 15, 2014. Now, there remains no dispute between the parties.

In view of compromise arrived at between the parties, the instant revision petition is accepted and the conviction and sentence imposed upon the petitioner vide judgments referred above are set aside.

The petitioner stands acquitted of the charge.
