CRM No.10985 of 2015

CRM stands dismissed as there is no order granting stay.

Main case

After arguing at length, learned counsel for the petitioner prays for permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to raise all the pleas before the trial court.

Before parting with the order, the Court noticed that trial court had continuously adjourned the matter because the present petition is pending before this Court. Since there is no stay order, trial court had no business to delay the trial on the pretext that the orders are awaited from this Court. A officer of the rank of superior judiciary should understand that in the absence of any restraint order, it cannot hold up the proceedings as it results in an unjust situation where justice is a casualty. Trial court is directed to proceed with the trial forthwith and conclude the same as expeditiously as possible.
