AT CHANDIGARH

(244)

CRR No.3853 of 2014

Decided on: August 14, 2015.

Karam Singh and others

.... Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. B.S. Jaswal, Advocate, for the petitioners.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

This is a revision petition filed by the petitioners against the order passed by the Appellate Court upholding the conviction of the petitioners for offence under Section 323, 341 read with section 34 IPC, in a state case however, granting them the concession of probation.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that petitioner No.3 Gurmukh Singh is a Government servant and he has got an apprehension that probation order might prejudice his rights, so far as his employment is concerned.

I have considered all the facts and circumstances of the case and I am of the opinion that the apprehension of the petitioners is misconceived in context to the provisions of Section 12 of the Probation of Offender Act, 1958 which specify that a person found guilty of an offence and dealt with the provisions of Sections 3 and 4 of the said Act shall not suffer disqualification, if any, attaching to a conviction of an offence under such law.

Disposed of with above observations.
