CRR 399 of 2015 (O&M)

Date of Decision: February 13, 2015

Paramjit Kaur and another

.....Petitioners

Vs.

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI.

Present:- Mr. M.S. Sachdev, Advocate for the petitioners.

M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

The petitioners are sisters-in-law of deceased who was abetted to commit suicide on account of maltreatment by the brother of the petitioners. Having been summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C., the petitioners have approached this Court to question the legality and propriety of the impugned order.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners and gone through the facts and circumstances of this case. I have also appreciated the fact that the petitioners were married much prior to the marriage of their brother with deceased but in view of the fact that petitioners Paramjit Kaur and Daljit Kaur have been specifically named in the dying declaration, the summoning of the petitioners as additional accused under Section 319 Cr.P.C. prima facie cannot be considered to be illegal. No opinion can be expressed at this stage that the dying declaration is a fabricated document with an objective to involve all the family members. There is no scope for interference in the impugned order at this stage.

Petition is dismissed. All the pleas of improbability, irrelevancy and inadmissibility of the evidence can be taken up by the petitioners at an opportune time before the trial Court.
