TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

The instant petition was preferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking extension of parole already granted to the petitioner under Section 3(1)(a) and (d) of the Haryana Good Conduct Prisoner's (Temporary Release) Act, 1962 on medical grounds.

It is the contention raised on behalf of the petitioner that Inder Singh had suffered fracture in both his legs and as such, requires treatment. Keeping in view his medical treatment the parole that was already granted to him by the Divisional Commissioner, Ambala vide order dated 18.7.2014, was extended on 5.11.2014 by this Court up to 21.11.2014. Thereafter, by way of interim orders the same concession was extended up to 2.2.2015 in the first instance, subsequently up to 16.3.2015 and up to today.

During the course of hearing today, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that now the petitioner is undergoing treatment at Sarvodya Hospital, Ghaziabad i.e. a private hospital.

Keeping in view the factual position in terms of which the parole initially granted for a period of six weeks w.e.f. 18.7.2014 has extended to the petitioner till date, the present petition is disposed of in terms of extending such benefit till 15.4.2015.

The petitioner is directed to surrender before the concerned jail authorities positively on 16.4.2015.

Disposed of.
