The petitioner is seeking her pre-mature release in terms of Government policy dated 08.07.1991. Her case for pre-mature release was recommended by the authorities, but the competent Authority had declined it on the ground that she had committed heinous crime, vide order dated 20.12.2012. Challenging the order, she has filed the instant petition.

Learned state Counsel has filed the reply indicating that the case of the petitioner for pre-mature release has been taken up again on 05.06.2015. District Magistrate, Hoshiarpur has given no objection to the release of the petitioner and now the matter is under consideration of respondent No.1 and it is pleaded that the case will be decided shortly.

In view of the above, respondent No.1 is directed to decide the pre-mature release case of the petitioner within three months from today. In case, it is not decided within the stipulated time, the petitioner shall be released on parole on her furnishing personal bond and surety bond to the satisfaction of the District Magistrate concerned. The petitioner shall give an undertaking that she will not leave the country without prior permission of the Court and will keep peace and shall not indulge in any criminal activity during parole. On receipt of order from the State Government, Superintendent, Women Jail, Ludhiana shall inform the petitioner forthwith. In case the competent authority passes any adverse order on the premature release case of the petitioner, she shall surrender before the Jail Authorities within three days of communication of the said order.

The petition is disposed of on the aforesaid terms.
