

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

241

Criminal Writ petition No. 1 of 2015
Date of Decision: 15th January, 2015

Udham Singh

....Petitioner

Versus

Ramesh Kumar and others

....Respondents

*****

CORAM: Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Daya Chaudhary

*****

Present: Mr. S.S. Siao, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. T. N. Sarup, Addl. A.G., Punjab.

*****

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J.(Oral)

Reply on behalf of respondent-State has been filed in the Court today and the same is taken on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the detenue has been released but payment has not been made.

In view of the submission made above, the present petition has become infructuous.

Dismissed as having become infructuous.

In case, any payment is due, the alleged detenue is at liberty to avail the appropriate remedy.

15.01.2015
sonia g.

(DAYA CHAUDHARY)
JUDGE