Daya Chaudhary, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for quashing of impugned order dated 23.07.2015 passed by respondent No.1 whereby the claim of the petitioner for releasing him on parole has been rejected. A further prayer has also been made for direction to respondent No.1 to reconsider the request of the petitioner for agro parole afresh which is still pending.

In response to the notice of motion, reply has been filed by learned counsel for U.T., Chandigarh which is already on record.

Learned counsel for U.T., Chandigarh submits that the petitioner is likely to complete his sentence in the month of January, 2016 and the application for release of the petitioner on parole was forwarded to the District Magistrate, Amritsar on 02.09.2015. She further submits that the recommendation is still awaited and in case, recommendation is received, fresh order will be passed.

In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for U.T., Chandigarh, the present petition is disposed of, with a direction to respondent No.1 to reconsider the case of the petitioner within a period of two weeks.
