...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and Others

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. C. PURI

Present : Mr. Ashok Bhardwaj, Advocate for the petitioner.
 Mr. Yogesh Gupta, AAG, Punjab.

K. C. PURI, J. (ORAL)

This is a petition for habeas corpus.

Alleged detainee-Manpreet Kaur is present in person and has stated at the bar that she is voluntarily residing in the house of her parents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that alleged detainee come directly from the custody of the parents and as such, she is under the influence and is not free mind.

Alleged detainee is twenty-four years and as per matriculation certificate, her date of birth is 18.10.1989. Alleged detainee has been inquired thoroughly and she has stated at the bar that she is residing voluntarily with her parents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that civil remedy of the petitioner may be protected, but, in habeas corpus, this order cannot be passed, as only life and liberty of the person is to be seen in proceeding of habeas corpus. Alleged detainee has stated that she is voluntarily residing with her parents. There is nothing wrong in it.

So, in these circumstances, the present petition stands dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
