JITENDRA CHAUHAN.J.(ORAL)

The present petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of habeas corpus on the allegations that the daughter of the petitioner has been illegally detained by the private respondents No. 4 & 5.

Learned counsel for respondents No.4 & 5, on instructions, states that the petitioner earlier married her daughter Gokha. It is alleged that she did not send her daughter to matrimonial home and for securing compromise, she has taken Rs.3 lacs from the previous husband of the alleged detainee. It is further asserted that the petitioner wants to marry the detenue against monetary considerations.

The marriage is being opposed on the sole ground that the husband being from a different religion. The husband is Hindu whereas the petitioner professes Islam. The wife was also heard in person. She reiterates that her father wants to give her in second marriage on monetary consideration.

In view of the fact that the husband and wife are major and they have been residing as husband and wife at their native place. The daughter of the petitioner is fully satisfied with her matrimonial life, therefore, the present petition is dismissed
