CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mr. S.S. Kamboj, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Baldev Badhran, Advocate for the respondents.

Jitendra Chauhan, J. (Oral)

By way of the instant writ petition, under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners seek issuance of directions to the respondents to grant family pension and release of interest amount @ 18% p.a., on the gratuity payment and leave encashment etc.

The learned counsel for the respondents states that the requisite papers for the necessary benefits were submitted on 04.06.2011. Immediately, on receipt thereof, all the benefits were released in favour of the petitioners on 06.06.2011.

On the other hand, the learned counsel for the petitioners refers to Annexure P-8 and states that the petitioners are entitled to interest after six months from the registration of the FIR.

The FIR in the instant case was registered on 19.03.1996.

However, the learned counsel for the petitioners is not able to satisfy the Court that the policy (Annexure P-8) is applicable to the case of the petitioners.

In the circumstances, the instant petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to represent the competent authority within one month from today with all the requisite documents to make out the case as asserted by them.
