Challenge in the present writ petition is to order dated 26.10.2015 (Annexure P-1) passed by the Superintendent, District Jail, Gurgaon rejecting the claim of the petitioner for parole.

It has been found that the petitioner is a hard core prisoner as he is undergoing life imprisonment in three cases for the offences under Section 302 IPC read with other offences in FIR Nos. 276 of 2007, 296 of 2007 and 218 of 2010. It has also been found that another case for an offence under Section 302, 303, 323, 325 and 120-B of IPC is pending against the petitioner though the petitioner is on bail.

The petitioner has attached a custody certificate (Annexure P-3). A perusal thereof shows that the petitioner stands convicted in as many as five cases though acquitted in as many as ten cases. Keeping in view the large number of cases in which he was an accused and cases in which he stands acquitted, we do not find any illegality in the conclusion of the Superintendent, District Jail, Gurgaon that the petitioner is a hard core prisoner.

Dismissed.
