

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRWP No.1648 of 2015
Date of Decision:20.11.2015

Yad Ram alias Kuku and others ...Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana and another ...Respondents

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.S. Saron
Hon'ble Mr. Justice Amol Rattan Singh

Present: Mr. Munish Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

S.S. Saron, J.

The criminal writ petition has been filed by the petitioners seeking three weeks temporary release on parole for attending three marriages of sister's children (two daughters and a son of Bir Singh-petitioner No.3) and father's sister's children (two daughters and a son) of Yad Ram and Ramdhan, petitioner No.1 and 2, that are to be solemnized on 22.11.2015.

The petition has been filed at a highly belated stage. However, according to the learned counsel, the petitioner submitted an application dated 05.11.2015, to the Superintendent, District Jail, Rewari for temporary release.

Except for the bald assertion of the petitioners, there is nothing to show that the said application has indeed been submitted.

Be that as it may, it would be just and expedient in the facts and circumstances of the case, that in case such an application has been made, the competent authority shall consider the same as expeditiously as possible and preferably before the date of marriage and in case it has not been made, another fresh application in case is made, shall be considered.

Accordingly, the criminal writ petition is disposed of with a direction that in case application dated 05.11.2015 (Annexure P-3) has been made to the competent authority of District Jail, Rewari or, in any case a fresh application is made, the same shall be considered and disposed of as expeditiously as possible and preferably before the date of marriage.

A copy of this order be given dasti to the learned counsel for the petitioner, on payment of usual charges, as described under the Rules.
