This is a petition for granting emergency parole for three weeks. It is stated that the petitioner is a life convict, on 07.02.2015 his mother passed away, the Kirya ceremony is fixed for 16.02.2015 and, therefore, parole be granted. Learned counsel while arguing has, however, limited his prayer to the extent that since the petitioner is the eldest son, he be taken in custody to enable him to participate in the last rites.

Notice of motion.

On the asking of the Court, Mr.Ashish Yadav, Addl.AG, Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has supplied a copy of the petition to the learned Addl.AG today in the court itself. Learned Addl.AG has very fairly stated that in case these facts are correct the petitioner cannot be held disentitled to the limited relief being claimed.

In the circumstances the petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondents to take the petitioner in custody to his village so that he is able to participate in the last rites of his mother after verifying the fact of death.

A copy of this order be handed over dasti to learned counsel for the petitioner and to learned Addl.AG under the signatures of the Bench Secretary.
