RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Petitioner, by way of instant criminal writ petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeks urgent emergency temporary release under Section 3(1) (a) of the Haryana Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 1998.

Notice of motion was issued and pursuant thereto, reply by way of affidavit dated 21.1.2015 of Superintendent, District Prison Jhajjar, has been filed on behalf of the respondents.

During the course of hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he does not intend to press this criminal writ petition for the purpose of urgent emergency temporary release of the petitioner. He further submits that petitioner would be satisfied in case respondent authorities are directed to take the petitioner to his ailing mother so as to enable the petitioner to meet his mother in police custody. He further submits that petitioner shall be brought back after arranging a short meeting with his mother.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties, present criminal writ petition is disposed of with a direction to Superintendent, District Jail Jhajjar-respondent No.2 to arrange a meeting of the petitioner with his mother, however, in police custody. After allowing the petitioner to spend some reasonable time with his mother, he shall be brought back. However, it is made clear that petitioner shall remain in police custody.

With the above-said observations made and directions issued, instant criminal writ petition stands disposed of.
