ANITA CHAUDHRY, J.(ORAL)

Vakalatnama on behalf of respondents No. 4 to 7 has been filed in the Court today.

Detenue – Reena Mittal has been produced by respondents No. 4 to 7. The parents of detenue are also present.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that Reena had got married to the petitioner and they had come to this Court and had filed protection petition but the girl had been taken by parents with the promise that the rituals would be performed but thereafter she was not allowed to leave the house.

The detenue was called to the chamber. The girl was under a lot of stress and took time to respond. She stated that she wanted to go with the petitioner. She stated that she had gone with her parents as they had promised that they would send her after performing some rituals but later on did not allow her to leave. The detenue was given time to make up her mind. She states that she is major.

The marriage photographs and the certificate have been placed on record. The detenue states that she wants to accompany the petitioner. The petitioner and detenue were asked to sit in the Court for a while. They have now left together.

In view of the above, the petition is allowed. No further directions are required to be given.
