TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

The instant petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for the issuance of a Writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus seeking the release of alleged detainees, the details of whom have been furnished in para 2 of the petition and who were alleged to be in the unlawful confinement of respondents no.4 to 7.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, during the course of hearing today, would make a categorical statement that he does not wish to pursue the instant petition as the detainees have since been released. Counsel further submits that he has instructions to state that the detainees, who have since been released were not being held as bonded laborers at the brick kiln in question and all the dues already stand settled.

Instant petition is, accordingly, dismissed as not pressed.
