Counsel for the petitioner, after arguing for some time, prays that the petitioner, at this stage, is not in a position to pay of the present dues, which have accumulated on the amount demanded along with interest and shall deposit the same in equal monthly instalments within a period of ten months. He further states that 1st instalment will be deposited within a period of ten days from today i.e. on 01.08.2015 and thereafter on 1st of every month, the instalments will be deposited.

In the light of the statement made by counsel for the petitioner, the present petition is disposed of with direction to the respondents to accept the payment from the petitioner qua the 1st instalment of the amount due as on the date of deposit on 01.08.2015. The remaining amount be paid by the petitioner in equal monthly instalments with the amount of instalment to be deposited on 1st of each month. It goes without saying that the last instalment would include the interest, which would have accrued during the deposit of these instalments.
