Present writ petition has been filed for quashing of charge-sheet dated 1st October, 2014 as well as consequential proceedings.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in view of the fact that proceedings have culminated in order of punishment on 4th November, 2015, present writ petition has been rendered infructuous. He further submits that petitioner would prefer statutory appeal against the order of punishment and take all available pleas before the competent authority.

In view of the above, this writ petition is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
