S.J. VAZIFDAR, A.C.J. (ORAL)

The petitioner has challenged the rejection of his tender. The rejection was on the ground that one of the documents had not been uploaded. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents states that on verification, it is found that the document was in fact uploaded. There was therefore an error on behalf of the respondents. Respondents, accordingly, agree to consider the petitioner's tender afresh on the basis that the tender was responsive.

The statement is accepted and it is so ordered.
