Challenge in this writ petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India is to order dated 1.7.2014 (Annexure P-9). Further a writ of mandamus has been sought for grant of benefit of waiving off interest in view of letter dated 26.6.2012 (Annexure P-8).

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that Annexure P-9 has been passed at the back of the petitioners without affording an opportunity of hearing to them and is not a speaking order. It was submitted that liberty may be granted to the petitioners to file a detailed and comprehensive representation laying the claim as has been raised in the writ petition. Further, a direction be issued to the respondents to decide the same after hearing them in accordance with law within a time bound frame.

2. The writ petition is disposed of by permitting the petitioners to file a detailed and comprehensive representation laying the claim as has been raised in the writ petition. In case, the representation is filed by the
