Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mahesh Grover

Reply indicates the release of benefit to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that interest should have been given to her.

The facts would indicate that the deceased employee was under suspension and was facing some proceedings, therefore, it is not a case where straightway prayer for grant of interest be accepted.

The petition is disposed of having been rendered infructuous leaving the petitioner to claim the interest, if she can establish her entitlement.
