Surya Kant, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that notwithstanding the plea taken in para No.3 of the Original Application on the point of limitation, he had placed on record several documents comprising the medical record to prove that delay in approaching the Tribunal was beyond the control of the petitioner and that it was a fit case for condonation of delay. He further submits that since those documents have not been referred to by the Tribunal in the order dated 27.08.2014, he may be permitted to withdraw this writ petition with liberty to move an appropriate application before the Tribunal.

Ordered accordingly.
