....petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

.....respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE ARUN PALLI

Present: Mr.Prashant vashisth, Advocate for the petitioner

ARUN PALLI, J.(ORAL):-

A writ in the nature of mandamus is prayed for, so as to direct the respondents to re-check the answer sheet (Annexure P1) of the petitioner, qua the examination: Jail Manual (without book), conducted in July 2014.

In response to the representation submitted by the petitioner to re-check his departmental paper, the respondents vide letter dated 14.05.2015 (Annexure P3) has turned down his request, as there is no provision/sub-clause as regards re-checking of departmental paper nor there was any procedure for doing so.

Learned counsel for the petitioner could not point out that there indeed exists any provision, clause or instructions that postulate re-checking of a departmental paper by the authorities.

That being so, no interference under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, is warranted. The petition being devoid of merit is accordingly dismissed.
