

DIGVIJAY SINGH VS UNION OF INDIA & ORS.

Present : Mr. Sudhir Mittal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Parminder Singh, Sr. Panel Counsel for the respondents.

AJAY TEWARI, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the parties are agreed that the petitioner has been allowed to re-join the course and the present petition has been rendered infructuous.

Learned counsel for the petitioner however points out that from a copy of letter received from his client it transpired that not only the present petitioner but five other candidates had been declared unfit on this completely untenuous ground. He has expressed his dismay that this kind of mechanism is going on in the armed forces, whereby people are declared medically unfit on spurious ground and, just to help candidates who may be lower in the merit list to move up. In my opinion, this may provide a cause of action in public interest but I cannot go into this aspect of the matter.

Petition stands disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
