AT CHANDIGARH

Civil Writ Petition No. 14830 of 2015 (O&M)

103

Date of decision : 24.07.2015

Sube Ram

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

....Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT GUPTA HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE LISA GILL

Present: Dr. Deepak Jindal, Advocate for
for the petitioner.

HEMANT GUPTA, J.

Challenge in the writ petition is to delimitation of wards and to the deletion of voters by submitting representation.

Concededly the petitioner has not filed any objections to the draft notification proposing delimitation of wards. The argument of the petitioner is that representation submitted by the petitioner disputing delimitation of wards has not been decided.

Norms and proper procedure has been prescribed for deciding the process of delimitation, it is the same process which has to be followed and none else. Representation is not a substitute of objections required to be filed to the draft notification.

In view thereof, we do not find any merit in the writ petition. The same is dismissed.
