The claim of the petitioner is that though his name was recommended for appointment, but under the garb of verification of experience certificate, he was not issued appointment letter. Show cause notice dated 21.6.2014 (Annexure P-4) was issued to the petitioner, the relevant extract of which is extracted below:

"Name of school	Observation in regard to the experience
National Sr. Sec. School, Babain	Teaching experience appears suspicious, the school has employed 12 Lecturers in October, 2007. There are 3 Lecturers in Hindi subject, 2 Lecturers in English, 2 Lecturers in History. In 2007-08 there were only 29 students in 12 th and 40 students in 11 th i.e. a total of 69 students. In 2008-09 there were 51 students in 11 th and 58 students in 12 th , in 2009-10 there were 20 students in 12 th and 74 students in 11 th . Engagement of so many Lecturer for less number of students appears suspicious and hence not eligible.

The petitioner has already filed reply to the aforesaid show cause notice on 4.7.2014. However, till date no final decision has been taken, though other candidates, in whose cases certain objections were raised, have been permitted to join.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner, however, without opining on the merits of the controversy, the present petition is disposed of at this stage with a direction to respondent No. 2 to take a final decision on the show cause notice issued to the petitioner, to which he has already filed reply, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of copy of the order.
