MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioner has filed the instant petition with a prayer that mandamus be issued to conduct Haryana Teachers Eligibility Test for enabling her to appointment as a primary teacher.

Learned counsel for the parties are ad idem that the controversy raised in the petition is covered by the decision rendered in case CWP no. 346 of 2013 titled as Antim Kumari vs. State of Haryana and others decided on 29.4.2015 appended to the reply wherein it was held as under:-

“Thus there is no force in the argument of the learned counsel for the petitioners that as HTET test was not conducted in the year 2012, the petitioners should be held eligible on the basis of their having qualified the CTET. The petitions in this set are thus dismissed.

Petitioners in this set are the candidates who have acquired the JBT/ETT Diploma after the cut off date in the advertisement i.e 08.12.2012, but having qualified in the HTET held on 26.6.2013 the result whereof was declared on 17.7.2013.

It requires no argument to hold that the petitioners in this set have no claim as they did not possess the basic qualification before the cut -off date.”

In view of the consensus and the stand of the parties and observations of Antim Kumari's case (supra), instant petition is dismissed.
