Mr. Aman Chaudhary, learned counsel for the respondent-University, on instructions and on the basis of records, submitted to him by the University, states that the application of the petitioner for the post of Assistant Professor (Electronics and Communications) has not been returned, either by way of the physical application form that she submitted, or in the online process that she filled the form by. He has further submitted that the petitioner would be considered for the post of Assistant Professor (Electronics and Communications), along with the other candidates.
