CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE G.S. SANDHAWALIA

Present : Mr. Amandeep Singh Cheema, Advocate for the petitioner (s).

Mr. Pankaj Mulwani, DAG, Punjab.

G.S. Sandhawalia , J. (Oral)

The present order shall dispose of three writ petitions
i.e. CWP Nos. 18795, 19126 & 19218 of 2014.

Short affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent No.3 to depose that approval has been given to the recomputed result sent by the Recruitment Board and that further process has been initiated and the appointment is to be given to the petitioner (s) shortly. The relevant portion reads as under:-

*“3. That on receipt of the present writ petition, claim of the petitioner was reconsidered and the result of 407 candidates for the posts of District Police Constables was recomputed by this office in the light of Hon'ble Supreme Court judgment passed in case 'Ritesh R Sah Versus Dr. Y.L Yamul' 1996 AIR (SC) 1378 and the decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Rajasthan High Court Court (Jaipur Bench) and same was sent to the Director General of Police, Punjab, Chandigarh vide this office memo No.3231/Spl-B dated 08.06.2015 for getting approval. The Director General of Police, Punjab, Chandigarh vide his memo No.8038/E-1 (4) dated 11.08.2015 has informed to this office that approval has been given to the recomputed result sent by the Recruitment Board. According to this, necessary action may kindly be taken. (Copy of memo dated 11.08.2015 is annexed as Annexure R-1).

4. That as per approval, further process has been initiated and after completion of necessary formalities such as verification, medical etc. appointment will be given to the petitioner shortly.

5. That as the claim of the petitioner has already been accepted and the further appointment proceedings are under process, hence the present writ petition becomes infructuous and deserved to be dismissed.”

Accordingly, keeping in view the said reply, present writ petitions are disposed of by observing that respondent No.3 is bound by his affidavit and compliance will be done within a period of 3 months from today.
