S.J. VAZIFDAR, A.C.J. (ORAL)

The petitioner in effect seeks the enforcement of an order dated 28.05.2009 passed in CWP-8352-2009. In respect thereof, the petitioner has filed COCP-778-2010 in which interim orders have been passed on 03.02.2011. By a further order dated 22.03.2013, COCP-778-2010 has been admitted. This is for all practical purposes a parallel proceeding. The petitioner, however, seeks interim reliefs directing the respondents to ear-mark a plot and to maintain status quo in respect thereof for the benefit of the petitioner. The petitioner states that she has deposited 10% of the amount on the application for allotment.

2. It is not desirable to have parallel proceedings. The learned Judge dealing with COCP-778-2010 is already seized of the matter. The petitioner is at liberty to make applications including for interim reliefs in COCP-778-2010 itself.

3. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
